Magic Wand Introduction Activity

PART 1:

Congratulations! You have just found a magic wand that lets you change anything you want with the flick of your wrist.

What would you change about yourself?

What would you change in your community?

What would you change in the world?

Why would you choose these things?

PART 2:

Congratulations! You also have the power to prevent things from changing.

Second Partner: (10 minutes)

What would you never want to change about yourself?

What would you never want to change about your community?

What would you never want to change about the world?

Why would you hold these sacred?
