Leadership Project Assignment:
Understanding Multiple Perspectives and Diverse Points of View:
Potential Partnerships

Step 1: Consider who else might be care about this issue
Individuals or groups
- Organizations/Associations
- Institutions/ Government Agencies
- Boards, coalitions or other leadership groups
- Outside the disability sector
- Local, state, federal, international

What might motivate each individual/group to work on this issue?
- Facts/Practical Considerations, Experiences/Feelings, Values/Bias
Step 2 Interview: Listening to Understand Multiple Perspectives and Diverse Points of View

Before our next workshop, interview one person to more deeply understand their perspective and determine if they would be a good partner.

____________________________________________

Write 5 open-ended questions that you might ask. Write questions to help you understand relevant facts/practical considerations, experiences/feelings, and values/bias.
Step 3: Interview Reflection:
After the interview, record what you heard and reflect on the experience.

Individual Interviewed: ________________________________

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Facts/Practical Considerations</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Experiences/Feelings</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Values/Bias</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

How does this information influence your project action plan?

How were you successful in using your active listening skills? What challenges did you experience?