Per your urging at the last CoP ASD/DD we are glad to announce:

Special Event: Friday, July 25th!

Daniel Parker will be presenting a webinar on "Anxiety" from 9:30-10:45 and Matt Welch will be presenting on "Behavioral Intervention" from 11:00-12:15. Both presenters originally presented on these topics at the May 29th CoP ASD/DD.

Webcast viewing information will be coming July 22nd.

If you want to be a part of the in-person audience--we have room for around 25 people. We will be in Room 751 at 1 West Wilson in Madison. Arrive a bit early to sign in at the front desk. To reserve your seat, send an email to timothy.markle@wisconsin.gov.

Go to https://www.waisman.wisc.edu/connections/Community.php to stay up-to-date on the CoP ASD/DD events. We will be posting Dr. Steve Singer’s webinar on “Mental Wellness and Keeping an Even Keel” SOON!

Plus check out the Current Interests Tab:

- New Resource on Transition and Guardianship from the Autistic Self Advocacy Network
- An article on “Parental Expectations for Students with Disabilities”
- Links to learn more about Work Benefits Incentive Counseling

AND check out the announcements page about a job opportunity at the Waisman Center with the Center on Secondary Education for Student with Autism Spectrum Disorder (they’ve presented at previous CoP ASD/DDs).

Have a great week and we hope to have you tune-in or come join us on July 25th!
