

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION

CHOOSING QUESTION(S)

List several questions about inclusion that are important to and will resonate with the community:

- How can we get employers to consider hiring people with disabilities?
- What can schools and families do to better prepare young adults for the work force?
- How can we increase employment opportunities for all people in our community?

From this list, pick one or two that stand out because they could be answered by a broad range of community members or they could uncover valuable resources or connections:

- How can we increase employment opportunities for all people in our community?
- How can we get employers to consider hiring people with disabilities?

Write your question(s) in a way that encourages action and commitment:

1. How can we as community expand opportunities for people with disabilities?
2. What can I do to create a more diverse workplace?
